YOU TOO.

May be prejudiced against employment agencies as a lot of people are. That's because they have never tried the A. I. Our courteous treatment and fair dealing make it cheaper for you to come to us and get a good job than it is to walk around looking for one or to spend your time working at a poor job. Our fee is one dollar and your money back if dissatisfied. Ask any of our more than two hundred satisfied clients. It's not secret.

While there they renewed many old acquaintances and were the recipients of much social attention.

The automobile party given by Mrs. B. F. Robinson for her neighbors and friends was quite a success. The party spent the day in Quindaro Heights where Mrs. Robinson spared no pains nor expense in trying to make it pleasant for those in attendance. The party was made up of twenty ladies, of which some have scarcely recovered from the sumptuous spread. Mr. B. F. Robinson, declares that he is going to give one and invite all the men of the two cities and barbeque a beef.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Buford of Argentine entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Buford's two brothers, Messrs. George and Harry Washington, who have just returned from military service. After an evening spent in music, games, recitals of military experiences and a bounteous luncheon, extending into the wee hours of the morning, the guests departed declaring Mrs. Buford an ideal hostess and all glad to have the Washington brothers back with them again.

A GREAT MAN PASSES OUT.

Memorial services were held in honor of Rev. Frank Wilson, Chief Grand Master Knights of the Free and Accepted Ancient York Masons, Kansas and Nebraska Jurisdiction at the Pleasant Green Baptist Church, Sunday August 17, 1919.

One of the largest crowds that we have ever witnessed at a funeral in Kansas City was in evidence. The daughters of Tabor with the Ladies of the Court formed a line at attention that reached on both sides of the street for more than a block and a half. The procession which escorted the corpse to the church was at least a mile in length. The crowd that stood along the line of the procession was estimated at between five and six thousand. There was a carriage loaded to its capacity with beautiful floral offerings. There was two of the leading bands of the city in the procession. Every number of the Knights Daughters, Master Masons and Sisters of the Courts were in the procession.

Rev. Frank Wilson was born March 25th, 1854 and departed this life Aug. 7, 1919. He leaves many relatives and host of friends who mourn their loss.

C. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. H. L. Bolden, Pastor.

The Sabbath School is in a prosperous condition and the Superintendent, Teachers and scholars are all taking a wide awake interest in the work. We are pleased with the attendance and our aim is to make this branch of the church one of our greatest services. The morning service was conducted by the pastor, who did his utmost to show us the way of Salvation and Life. Rev. Bolden is a man of God and we as worshippers appreciate the loving messages that he brings to us. Rev. Bolden with a great number of his members were in attendance at the funeral of Rev. Wilson in commemoration of the deceased. The evening service was conducted by Rev. J. A. Hamlet who preached a powerful sermon which was full of the spirit and the Holy Ghost. Rev. T. A. Bowers was also a welcome and pleasant visitor at this service. The Auxiliary Boards will meet as was announced and we wish to urge a good attendance. The collection for the day was very good.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. George McNeal, Pastor.

The early morning service was well attended and the presence of the Holy Spirit was felt. This service always paves the way for the other services of the day. We feel that our Sunday services would not be near so successful did we not have our 5 o'clock Prayer Service. The morning service at 11 o'clock was conducted by the pastor who used as his subject "Set thy house in order" and to say that he preached a wonderful sermon would not begin to give one an idea of his power. On the account of the funeral of the late Sir Knight, Rev. Frank Wilson, we did not have our Sunday School, neither our B. Y. P. U. The funeral services began at 2 o'clock p. m. and were not concluded until near 6 o'clock. The program which was rendered was of the very highest calibre and many were the words of praise said in commemoration of our late brother and Gospel Minister. The Auditorium was inadequate to accommodate the large audience that assembled to pay their last tribute of respects to the deceased. There was a number of visitors from out of the city who came to assist in the ceremonies. Mrs. A. E. Hyde continues very ill and show but very little improvement, however, we hope that she will soon begin to mend.

The funeral of Bro. Jackson Tucker was held from the church Monday the 18th. Brother Tucker was a young man and had only recently entered the ministry. The church extends her sympathy to the bereaved family. Pleasant Green Baptist Church has lost more than seven members in the past thirty days. We can only bow our heads and say "Thy will be done." The Pastor's Aid will have an installation this Monday night August 18th. There will be a Rally Contest between the women and the men on the 4th Sunday in September. All are beginning to work toward that end. Bro. Jones and Sister Bartell both promise to lead in the rally.

MT. PLEASANT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. J. R. Richardson, Pastor.

The Bible Class which is rapidly growing was held at the usual time and quite an interest was manifested in the study of the Holy Scriptures. The morning service was conducted by Rev. Malekebu, from the far off shores of Dark Africa. He is a native African and is well cultured, having got his training in this country. His wife who accompanies him, is also an African but of different tribe to that of Rev. Malekebu. He used for his subject, "You are the Salt of the Earth" and preached a sermon that any man with ears could understand. He is very practicable and uses many illustrations from his native land. He and his amiable wife favored the congregation with a song, one singing in the African tongue and the other in the English which was a rare musical treat. Mrs. Malekebu has a beautiful round and full alto voice and as is characteristic of the Negro, she sang from the depths of her soul. The women of the Mite Missionary Society had quite a contest last Friday night as da beautiful silk crazy quilt was given as a prize to the one selling the most tickets. The quilt was given to Mrs. Francis Thomas on Oakland Ave. who succeeded in selling $31.20 worth of tickets. Mrs. Ida Garlington was given the second prize, a beautiful sofa pillow. The ladies Mission Circle cleared $98.20. Rev. Malekebu gave us a lecture Sunday night about "His Country, Africa." He said "There are millions of my people in Africa and oh, so few Missionaries." "The country is one that figuratively speaking flows with milk and honey," a man can live with little or no effort whatever. But we need men and women to go into this land and teach us how to live." Quite a neat sum was given to Rev. Malekebu to help him on his way. Hurrah! the men beat the women $6.15 but the women say they did that on purpose. The total collection for the day was $175.55. Sunday August 31st, the Rev. Richardson will preach a special sermon to the inquiring men. All are invited to be present and hear a wonderful sermon.
